Rock Show Inspires Kids With Healthy Tunes

Jill Jayne, MS, RD, is getting kids to rock out in the name of healthy eating during the Jump With Jill show's ongoing tour. The live show features songs from her CD Get Me Goin'.

Since Jump With Jill's inception three years ago, Jayne has performed her show for more than 42,000 children. The reaction to the show was the impetus for producing the audio CD. Kids, educators, and health professionals can preview the music and follow Jayne as she tours the country via the blog on her Web site.

Both the CD and interactive show address the need to connect with kids concerning overall health, exercise, and nutrition. This summer, Jayne will develop the show into multimedia properties, including a curriculum for teachers and a television show.
